

INSTITUTE OF TAI STUDIES AND RESEARCH

MORANHAT : ASSAM

ICHR/ICSSR Sponsored National Seminar on Endangered Ethnic Cultures and Languages in Northeast India

December, 17-18, 2016

Abstracts of Papers of the Following Participants are accepted to present in the Seminar

Sl. No.	Name & Affiliating Institutions	Title of the Abstract
1.	Ms. Dulurani Phukan, Ms. Mondira Mohan Ms. Jasmine Boruah Demow College, Demow	Social Change and its Impact on the Identity Crisis of the Tai Ahoms: A Cultural Perspective.
2.	Detsung Swargiary Research Scholar, Dept. of Folklore Research, Gauhati University, Assam, India	A Study on the Traditional Food for Feast and Ritual of the Bodo
3.	Miss Gitika Boruah Miss Trishmita Borah	Education in Social Change and Development of Sonowal Kachari Culture.
4.	Pankaj Baruah Tour & Trekking Guide, Directorate of Tourism Govt. of Assam. Nika Namchoom 4th semester, Dept. of Education, Dibrugarh University	Ethnic Culture, Social change and Development of the Tai Khamtis in Assam
5.	Biswajit Brahma	Language and Culture as an essence of a community: An Interpretation
6.	N.Nyejat Wangnao Konyak Research Scholar, Dept. of History North Eastern Hill University, Shillong, India.	Konyak Naga: Dialect and Tribe Identity
7.	Sri Nakaulang Nriame Department of History Rangia College, Rangia, Kamrup(R), Assam.	Religious conversion, reformation and menace to the cultural institutions and tradition of the Zeme Naga of Dima Hasao
8.	Bornali Hati Boruah Research Scholar, Dept. of Political science Assam University, Diphu Campus	Tai Ahoms Diaspora in Assam : A Study of its Material Culture
9.	Junmoni Baruah D.D.R. College, Chabua Mitali Sonowal Research Scholar, Department of Education Dibrugarh University	Impact of Education on Cultural Development of Ethnic groups in Assam